Salt Lake Marriott Downtown at City Creek Touts Recent Renovations

Salt Lake City hotel's newly designed meeting spaces feature personalized menus, dedicated event staff while still offering guests the perfect downtown location

Salt Lake City, UT – Recently finished renovations at the Salt Lake Marriott Downtown at City Creek have renewed it's positioning as one of the best destinations for events of all sizes.

Featuring one of downtown Salt Lake's largest ballrooms and offering exceptional guest rooms, the Salt Lake City hotel invites groups of up to 2,000 to plan their social events and business meetings with 22 distinct rooms totaling 22,000 square feet of flexible event space.

Beyond the elegance of the rooms, meeting amenities at this hotel in Salt Lake City have also been expanded. Supported by dedicated staff with over 30 years of professional experience, these meeting spaces feature customizable catering menus that will complement every style of event, from formal business meetings to joyous wedding receptions and ceremonies. Dedicated event staff will help ensure that all catering needs are met, as well as other considerations such as audio and visual equipment rentals, decorations and proper event setup.

The renovated Grand Ballroom, just minutes from picturesque Temple Square, serves as a perfect choice for wedding events and large meetings. Able to seat 1,100 individuals banquet-style, the room also can be divided into smaller reception areas that stun guests with their elegant and bright colors. Coupled with a convenient downtown location and it becomes clear why so many groups select the Salt Lake Marriott Downtown Hotel for meetings and events. Just steps away from a new Nordstrom's and City Creek, a premier destination for shopping and dining, the hotel on a regular basis works with both local businesses and visiting groups by offering premium meeting space just moments from downtown Salt Lake City attractions.

Whether looking for a destination for the year's big conference or the perfect venue for a wedding reception, the Marriott hotel in Salt Lake City welcomes groups of all sizes to take advantage of its newly renovated meeting and event spaces.
