

Press Contact

Jackie Jacobson
Email: Jacqueline.Jacobson@marriott.com
Phone: 1-720-283-8289

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

| Hotels in Provo | Provo restaurants | Provo hotels |

Provo Marriott Hotel & Conference Center Welcomes Guests to Experience All New Changes

The only full-service hotel in the Provo area invites travelers to stay, eat, socialize and relax in a completely new lobby, restaurant, lounge area and Starbucks Café, and enjoy elegant accommodations.

Provo, UT – Hotel guests are always craving something new and cutting edge, and the Provo Marriott Hotel & Conference Center has just what they desire.

From a new restaurant to a redesigned lobby that invokes grandeur and elegance, the hotel in Provo greets guests with a refreshing take on hospitality. After checking in to the Provo hotel, guests now have access to the spacious Greatroom area, which features comfortable seating and plenty of places to work and relax. The flowing space evokes the inviting lodges and warm hearths and creates a space that strikes a balance between function and elegance with flowing lines and open areas

With travel behind them, visitors are sure to have worked up an appetite that can be satisfied at the new Slate restaurant, offering private dining areas and a lounge for patrons 21 and older; Slate opened in November to rave reviews. The sophisticated Provo restaurant serves up a unique twist on contemporary American classics for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Diners can start a meal with a smoked bacon cheddar dip, crispy calamari or zesty quesadillas. From there, they can bite into a juicy bison burger or sip on the hot soup of the day. And what meal would be complete without a slice of cheesecake, ginger peach cobbler or tempting dessert choices. While sampling these delicious plates, guests will appreciate the beautiful atmosphere, accented by contemporary sculptures and natural materials.

After a wonderful meal, guests can relax in the spacious Greatroom. The wide open area offers plenty of space to sit down and read the paper, surf the Internet via wireless access or just enjoy the peacefulness of the hotel in Provo.

For travelers planning events or meetings, the Provo Marriott hotel makes it easier than ever to get everyone together. Marriott's inventive Certified Event Planners and dedicated staff members take the stress out of planning everything from business meetings to weddings. And few hotels in Provo have as much versatile space as the Provo Marriott Hotel & Conference Center, featuring 28,000 square feet of flexible space across 20 rooms. The largest of these spaces can host groups of up to 1,000 individuals.

Experience firsthand all of these changes by booking a stay today. The Provo hotel offers a number of promotions throughout the year, so be sure to check the deals and special packages for this Provo hotel before making reservations.

About the Provo Marriott Hotel & Conference Center

The Provo Marriott Hotel & Conference Center is surrounded by Brigham Young University, Uinta National Forest and Seven Peaks Water Park. The Marriott is ideal for business guests of Novell, Nestlé, Utah Valley Medical Center and a host of other Provo-area companies. A perfect family destination, the Provo hotel is near Utah Lake State Park, with only 20 minutes to skiing at Sundance in the Timpanogos Mountains and 45 minutes to Park City. The hotel also is less than an hour from Salt Lake City and Temple Square. Experience luxurious accommodations highlighted by bright, fresh and welcoming decor. For award-winning hospitality at an exceptional value, rely on this full-service Marriott hotel in Provo, Utah. For information, visit www.marriott.com/SLCVO.