...jewelry with a conscience

Zoe and Piper started out on a whim, as a family jewelry business, back in 1997. Known as Taos Trading, we specialized in Native American handmade jewelry. We expanded our southwestern jewelry to include asian influences, whimsical pieces and traditional celtic symbols. Several years back, we decided to start making our own jewelry line, and that is when the creative juices started flowing. What a rush it is to buy handfuls and strands of beautiful gemstones! Being able to sort through and hand pick out the gemstones we use is an exhilarating high, and then being able to create jewelry with these items is the icing on the cake.

This year, we wanted to start a new line of sterling silver jewelry that showcased our style and philosophy... Zoe and Piper was born! The name is inspired by my daughter, Piper. If only we could see the world through a child's eyes, wouldn't it be a better place?

Our first pendants speak for themselves, literally. Our buddha pendant has words of inspiration written across the front and back: "Compassion, Karma, Peace, Love, Kindness, Respect and Tranquility" - words to live by. Our Herbivore pendant speaks out for Vegetarians, Vegans and Animals alike.

We are proud to donate a portion of our proceeds to select animal sanctuaries and advocacy groups. Working with and caring for animals has always been an important part of our lives, and this is our little way of giving back.

Piper

Hi, I'm Piper, the muse behind Zoe + Piper. I may be young, but I inspire all kinds of creativity and inspiration for my mom and my grandma (the creative forces behind Zoe + Piper). And as for Zoe... a little sister someday?
