SUMMARY: PUABooks.net the leading pick up artist and dating advice product review website releases a review of The Fantasy Lover Formula, a new video training course that intends to teach men how to "become her 'one night stand fantasy' - every night"

Fantasy Lover Formula a new educational video training program for men has just been released to the public creating a buzz of excitement throughout the men's dating and sex advice community and prompting a review from PUABooks.net's Clint Johnson.

"The Fantasy Lover Formula program is aiming to fulfill a need that is shared by both single and married men all around the world", reports reporter. "Men from all walks of life want to become better lovers so that they can fully satisfy their wives and girlfriends, but even in today's more socially progressive societies there still is a real lack of quality information available on how to improve in this area of one's life. So when we were informed regarding the release of The Fantasy Lover Formula we were eager to review the program for our website visitors, to see if this was indeed something we could recommend to them. "

The Fantasy Lover Formula was created by Playboy and Penthouse model Krista and adult model Leeann who decided to combined the foreplay and fantasy building skills used by the world's best female lovers with the most effective physical techniques used by expert male lovers into a training course for men. Johnson points out that despite the the trainings racy subject matter then training is organized in a way reminiscent of University curriculum:

"After logging into the member's area customer's gain access to a selection of 'training modules' covering the key aspects becoming a world class lover," says Johnson. "The program starts with seduction training from a female perspective. Guy's get to learn the ins and outs of sparking female arousal, which can be used to create that all important initial attraction with a woman. This is crucial for single guys who may need help getting started, and it's a real breath of fresh air considering all the bogus information floating around on the subject. From their customer are walked through fantasy foreplay, the main event, and then given extensive training on 'fantasy role-play'. One of the things that impressed us the most about the course was that this is material that can be used by guys in every situation and at every experience level. While single guys who have trouble getting a date get a complete seduction road-map, guys looking for advanced techniques and fantasy training get that information as well."

The Fantasy Lover Formula is available digitally online, allowing customers instant access to all training materials. Those wishing to purchase The Fantasy Lover Formula, or for more information, click here.
