Baseball lovers find Courtyard New York Manhattan offer a big hit

Package from Upper East Side hotel includes transportation to Yankee Stadium and in-room treats for fans

New York, NY – Taking in a ballgame at Manhattan’s famed Yankee Stadium has never been more convenient with a hit limited-time deal from the Courtyard New York Manhattan/Upper East Side.

Spring means baseball season is here again, and this Manhattan hotel package makes it easy for guests to root for the home team and not care if they ever get back. A sure hit for baseball fans, the Take Me Out to the Ballgame deal includes a metro card good for round-trip transportation to Yankee Stadium as well as peanuts or Cracker Jacks for each guest in one of our well-appointed 226 guestrooms.

After seeing Robinson Cano and other Yankee stars face teams from across Major League Baseball, travelers still have many options for adventure thanks to the hotel’s proximity to NYC cultural landmarks and other attractions.

Located in Manhattan’s prestigious Upper East Side, the Courtyard by Marriott hotel is a short walk from Museum Mile on 5th Avenue, which features the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum and The Whitney. The Met has several collections as well as temporary exhibitions, now including “Photography and the American Civil War,” which is open until Sept. 2, 2013.

Visitors who want to see more nature can head to one of two zoos near the hotel, the Central Park Zoo and Bronx Zoo. The Bronx Zoo has 4,000 animals spread over 265 acres and is a short taxi ride from Yankee Stadium, where visitors can root, root, root for their home team before returning to the hotel.

Whether taking in a game or going on a behind-the-scenes tour at Yankee Stadium, visitors can return to the Courtyard hotel for a relaxing swim in the indoor pool or head to Central Park, a mere six-block walk away. At the park, guests can go for a quiet stroll, watch their children play at one of 21 playgrounds or walk through 80 acres of woodlands.

No matter what guests want to do during their stay at the hotel near Yankee Stadium, the Courtyard New York's location and services are sure to please business travelers and families alike. Travelers can enjoy complimentary Internet access, in-room coffeemakers and a safe for valuable goods and electronics. Extended stays are rewarded with special rates and guests can choose from king or queen beds or a separate bedroom suite, which all include designer bedding and thicker mattresses.

To find out more about this grand slam deal, Upper East Side visitors can call 1-800-321-2211 and mention promotional code VRG. Travelers can also go online to view the package, which is valid through Nov. 22, 2013.
