

Iris Data Services Opens Client Services Office in Atlanta Leading Electronic Discovery Company Adds Georgia Litigation Support Operations

ATLANTA, April 15, 2013 — Iris Data Services, a leading provider of managed litigation services, announced today that it has opened a new client services facility in Atlanta at 1355 Peachtree St. NE, Suite 1725, Atlanta, GA, 30309, (404) 380-1255. This is a litigation support office that houses project management and client support. Iris Data Services is a leading supplier of discovery solutions including electronic discovery, managed litigation services, and document review technologies including kCura Relativity, Relativity Analytics, and Relativity Assisted Review.

The new Iris office is home to project managers, analysts, forensics examiners, and sales management, all serving law firms and corporate legal departments throughout the southeast United States. Atlanta represents the ninth major U.S. office for Iris joining Chicago, Dallas, Kansas City, Miami, New York, Olathe, Kansas, Phoenix, and San Francisco. Iris also has an office in Nanjing, China.

“Our new client services office is in the heart of the Midtown business district near a number of prominent companies, and only a couple of minutes from downtown,” said Damon Goduto, Iris Co-Founder and Vice-President of Sales (404-719-5111). “We are neighbors to many top Atlanta law firms and corporations, and this office places our discovery team closer to our current and future customer base.”

“Our new office in Atlanta cements our company’s commitment to our clients in the Atlanta area. We have experienced tremendous growth in this market and are excited to offer increased local service to law firms and corporate legal departments with growing amounts of complex litigation,” said the president of Iris, Major Baisden. “Real, comprehensive consultative services and support are now requirements of electronic discovery. This office makes it easier for our clients to centralize all aspects of discovery so they can focus on delivering higher value to their clients.”
