Booking a Yoga Retreat Has Never Been Easier

It has always been a hassle to find the perfect yoga holiday. With the launch of BookYogaRetreats.com you can find any yoga retreat easily on one website.

THE HAGUE - April 15, 2013. BookYogaRetreats, a travel company that allows people to book a yoga retreat anywhere in the world, today announced the launch of its global site, www.BookYogaRetreats.com.

"We believe that a yoga holiday is an experience that provides happiness and personal growth. This is why we would like many more people to participate in an awe inspiring yoga journey," explains founder Robert den Hollander.

The new site offers a wide selection of yoga retreats and yoga holidays from more than 100 organizers.

It is the first site to include all major yoga styles and over 60 destinations worldwide. The site is easy to navigate and allows you to search for retreats based on categories such as yoga style and destination.

In order to compare the performance of the retreat organizers, the website provides you with customer reviews. The reviews will give you an unbiased insight into quality and service, which will help you make an informed decision when booking your yoga retreat.

All details about yoga training, availability, price options, accommodation, and booking conditions are conveniently arranged on one page. You can contact the organizers directly with questions or simply go ahead and make an online reservation.

"Since our beta release four months ago, the feedback and activity on BookYogaRetreats has surpassed all our expectations," says Satiti Ingastrin, the manager of BookYogaRetreats. "Today is a big day for us, we're super excited to have our site open to the general public. We would love to see more people participating in yoga retreats."
