When looking for hotels in the area, visitors want to know what to do in Downers Grove. Starting every Saturday morning from May 11 to Oct. 19, 2013, Downtown Downers Grove Market vendors offer fresh fruit and vegetables that can be enjoyed by the entire family. The downtown market was named one of the best in the area according to the March-April 2013 edition of West Suburban Living. The market, at the Main Street train station, features more than 60 vendors who offer all types of food including meat and cheeses, bread and coffee. The vendors also sell children’s clothing, art and home goods. Fresh-cut flowers and dog treats also are for sale.

After a morning at the market, guests can return to the hotel and enjoy a relaxing lunch at Allie’s American Grille with an extensive menu of classic American fare in a friendly, casual atmosphere. An afternoon workout is a great way to continue the day, and the indoor or outdoor pools will provide a way to cool off after time in the fitness center or whirlpool.

The Chicago Marriott Suites Downers Grove is centrally located between O’Hare and Midway airports, with a plethora of family attractions nearby for an afternoon adventure. The Morton Arboretum is a nature center featuring dining, shopping and an open-air tram. The Brookfield Zoo has a children’s zoo and butterfly garden.

The Oakbrook Shopping Center offers upscale shopping that includes Macy’s, Nordstrom and Neiman Marcus.

Travelers can finish off the day by returning to their suites, where they can enjoy all the amenities they come to expect from fine Marriott hotels. The high-tech rooms include Internet access, two phones with voicemail and premium movie channels to wind down the day.
