

THE ULTIMATE RESOURCE FOR MEDIA PRODUCTION & AV SUPPORT SERVICES AND STAFFING

GOVERNMENT

Corporate Information & Capabilities

TeamPeople is a woman-owned small business concern providing multimedia production and AV support services and customized, full-time and temporary staffing solutions to broadcast, corporate and government clients. We have been responsible for developing workflows and departments where none have existed as well as taken over existing staffs and operations to provide higher quality and greater cost-effectiveness. TeamPeople can manage entire staffs or supplement our clients' staffs with fully-qualified personnel. Our success is reflected in an impressive client list that includes government, Fortune 100 corporations and many of the best-known broadcast & cable networks in America.

TeamPeople brings significant value-added to every project and contract. By working with us, clients have the benefit of all our services including payroll administration, on-site managed staffing, temporary/day-hire staffing, global recruiting, and consulting. A highly capable staff led by a team of industry pros supports all of these initiatives. Our best practices illustrate an unequalled level of experience in the industry.

TeamPeople's core capabilities include:

- Television and Multimedia Production Project Management
- A/V Operations Management
- Network & Broadcast Operations Management
- Production & Design Department Management
- Live Event Production Management
