Guest Rooms At Courtyard Phoenix Undergo Major Transformation

Phoenix airport hotel adds 37-inch LCD TVs, upgrades bedding and refreshes rooms with new paint and carpet

Phoenix, AZ – Visitors to Arizona can now step off a plane and into plush comfort at the Courtyard Phoenix Airport. The hotel has undergone a complete room renovation to increase comfort for families and business travelers alike.

The Phoenix airport hotel has added new bedding and upgraded carpet and paint in each of its 133 rooms and 12 suites. Large, ergonomic work desk areas in the quest rooms help speed jobs to a quick finish, while the new 37-inch LCD TVs provide a great break and chance to relax. In addition to new, plush and luxurious Sealy 12-inch mattresses, guests can enjoy spacious bathrooms. Visitors can relax in a separate seating area and enjoy complimentary in-room high-speed Internet access.

For business, vacations or family reunions, the hotel's renovated rooms will leave visitors refreshed and ready for anything.

Guests ready for a full meal or just an on-the-go snack can visit the recently renovated state-of-the-art lobby and The Bistro – Eat. Drink. Connect. restaurant for healthy sit-down meals at breakfast and dinner. Visitors can also enjoy Starbucks coffee in the morning or cocktails and craft, domestic or imported beers at the bar in the evening.

Travelers can work off any meal with the full-service fitness center and outdoor pool. The fitness center has cardiovascular equipment including treadmills, an elliptical machine and exercise bike. Phoenix weather makes swimming in the outdoor pool always a treat, and its heated waters mean early morning or evening swims are just as pleasurable. The whirlpool, meanwhile, can relax muscles with jets of hot water in a quiet atmosphere.

Meetings, events and social occasions are a breeze at the Courtyard Phoenix Airport due to its location and reputation as one of the premier Phoenix airport hotels. There are two rooms with 1,250 square feet of space and a capacity of 45 in the largest meeting room. The hotel also has audio and visual equipment, package services and a 24-hour business center with a computer, printer and Internet access.

The hotel offers a free 24-hour shuttle to Phoenix Sky Harbor Airport as well as downtown Tempe for all guests.

Local attractions include Heritage Square, which has shops, restaurants and museums as well as some structures from Phoenix's original settlement. Nearby, Chase Field showcases the Arizona Diamondbacks and Major League Baseball. Fans can see popular teams such as the Los Angeles Dodgers and San Francisco Giants, which each visit the D'backs for three series every summer.

Other places to visit close to the hotel include the Phoenix Zoo and Desert Botanical Gardens. Prospective college students can tour Arizona State University.

For the shoppers in the family, Arizona Mills Mall, the largest outlet shopping center in the state, is nearby.
