

Give the Gift of a Brighter Future

Help someone you care about save for the future with U.S. Savings Bonds. Life milestones such as birthdays, graduations, weddings and holidays are perfect occasions to give the gift of savings.

Start by going to www.treasurydirect.gov

Open a TreasuryDirect account

Buy a digital savings bond for as little as $25

Ask for the recipient's name, Social Security Number and TreasuryDirect account number (you'll need it to complete the process)

! Hey, Parents! For your child to receive a savings bond as a gift, you will need to open a TreasuryDirect account for them. Here's how.

- Go to www.treasurydirect.gov
- Open a TreasuryDirect account for yourself
- Set up an account for your child within your account

Deliver the savings bond gift to the recipient's TreasuryDirect account

Print out a gift certificate to commemorate the occasion

For a step-by-step guide on giving digital savings bonds as gifts, visit www.treasurydirect.gov/readysavegrow ready.save.grow.