Courtyard Phoenix Mesa Completes $1.5 Million Renovation Of Guest Rooms, Lobby

Mesa, Arizona, hotel remodel includes addition of The Bistro, GoBoard

Mesa, AZ – Nothing is better than a clean, comfortable home and fresh bedding when it's time to go to sleep. Now travelers can get that cozy feel on their next vacation or business trip thanks to a total hotel renovation from the Courtyard Phoenix Mesa.

The Mesa, AZ, hotel has completed its $1.5 million renovation, which included a new lobby and thoughtfully planned features in all of its 149 guest rooms as well as modified and useful outdoor space.

Families and business travelers will find the updated lobby makes everything easier, from arrival and meals to meetings and daily planning.

Separate welcome pedestals create a more personal and private interaction when checking in. The new concept also allows staff to easily show off lobby features. The Refreshing Business lobby concept is fantastic for meetings of all types.

The flexible space has media pods, complimentary Wi-Fi and multiple seating options. Chairs and tables can be reconfigured for any occasion, from a communal table in the center of the action to private booths with HDTVs and even a more intimate, semi-enclosed lounge area.

Another valuable feature of the renovated lobby is Courtyard's newly improved GoBoard 4.0. The 55-inch LCD touch screen shows local information, maps, weather and headline news. The award-winning GoBoard allows guests to send directions directly to their smart phones. Visitors also can access flight information, local events and walking directions at the touch of a finger.

Guests will love the changes to the 12 suites and 137 rooms. Each guest room has been specifically planned to feature plush bedding and a separate functional work space. Visitors can use the complimentary Wi-Fi in the ergonomic desk chair or in the separate seating area which includes a pull-out sofa. Spacious bathrooms help guests get ready in the morning for a productive day of work or a refreshing stay in the area.

Grabbing a full meal or a snack to go has never been easier thanks to The Bistro – Eat. Drink. Connect. From freshly brewed Starbucks coffee in the morning to craft and imported beers in the evenings, The Bistro has something for everyone. Visitors can have a full American-fare breakfast and unwind with light evening fare or cocktails at night. The Market shop is open 24/7 for snacks, beverages and any smaller items the guest may have forgotten to pack.

The Courtyard Phoenix is one of the most conveniently located Mesa, Arizona, hotels for everything visitors want to do in the area. Found just minutes from the Phoenix airport, the hotel is also near the Mesa Convention Center as well as Major League Baseball spring training action at the Chicago Cubs' Hohokam Park. Families can visit the Mesa Arts Center or the Arizona Museum of Natural History.

Vacationers and business travelers alike will find the fitness center and outdoor pool a relaxing break at the start or end of any day. Elliptical and treadmill machines aid workouts while the heated pool is ready to use all year long.

For social events or business gatherings, the Courtyard Phoenix Mesa has two meeting rooms with 1,274 square feet of meeting space. Nearly 50 people can get together in the Sonoran Room, while the 24-hour business center and available group rates help guests stay connected to the job or just with family and friends.

Guests staying at the renovated Phoenix-area hotel will feel rejuvenated with the help of well-designed rooms and a versatile and updated lobby. Visitors can extend their good vibes by using the newly introduced guest recycling program, which collects paper, glass, plastic and metal to help the environment.
