Westfields Marriott Washington Dulles Tempts Moms With Special Brunch On May 12

Popular Chantilly dining tradition includes seafood, meats and cheeses as well as fresh baked treats

Chantilly, Va. – What better way to treat mom on her special day than by taking her to an award-winning brunch this Mother’s Day. Thanks to the Westfields Marriott Washington Dulles, families can take part in a 23-year tradition and feast on many decadent delicacies for the special day.

The Chantilly hotel’s Champagne Sunday Brunches are widely recognized for their extravagant selections. Located at the Palm Court restaurant, the event has been a staple in the Chantilly, Va., area for more than 20 years and has been voted “Best for Brunch” by OpenTable Diners’ Choice in 2011, 2012 and 2013.

The Mother’s Day Brunch will be held May 12, 2013. Seating is from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. The price is $70 for adults, including brunch cocktails and champagne, and $24 for children ages 5 to 10. Children 4 and under eat free. Diners will enjoy a fine selection of traditional favorites including seafood, meats, cheeses and eggs. Hot entrees are available, as are carving stations and waffles. The talented culinary team at the Chantilly hotel also bakes fresh treats for the special meal.

Palm Court will wow Mom with its traditional ambiance featuring gold chargers, high-back chairs and Spiegelau Crystal, none of which she will have to clean after enjoying a hearty brunch.

Although Mother’s Day is a great opportunity to try the special brunch, guests staying at the Fairfax County hotel can try it any weekend. The weekly Sunday Brunch is $55 for adults and $19 for children ages 5 to 10. If guests are staying on the Two for Breakfast or Romance packages, they can receive a $36 credit ($18 each for two people) toward the bill.
