Courtyard Portland Beaverton Jumps Into Season With New Saltwater Pool

Indoor heated pool at hotel near Portland, Oregon, offers silky soft waters, fewer eye and skin irritants for guests

Beaverton, OR – The newest amenity at the Courtyard Portland Beaverton promises to blow guests' expectations out of the water without draining their pocketbooks.

The hotel near Portland, Oregon, has upgraded its swimming pool to a “saltwater spa” that invites guests to experience liquid luxury any time of day and in any weather condition. The updated indoor heated pool means guests won't have to deal with the wafting scent of chlorine, redness of eyes and itchiness of skin usually associated with traditional pools. The Beaverton hotel offers silky soft waters that will soothe even the most stressed of travelers because the salinity level in the mineral pool matches that of regular eye drops and is close to that of the human bodies. The Aqua Balance Pure Comfort System also is more Earth-friendly because approximately 50 percent less muriatic acid will be needed to maintain the pool over the course of time.

Guests of one of the newly refreshed hotels in Beaverton, Oregon, can experience the new pool and dive into savings as well with the Stay For Breakfast Package that offers deluxe accommodations plus breakfast for two at The Bistro – Eat. Drink. Connect. Travelers who plan to stay over the weekend and book at least 14 days in advance can save 20 percent off regular room rates.

With the extra money saved by taking advantage of these offers, guests can spend more to explore the city and surrounding areas. The Beaverton hotel is conveniently located within 45 miles of 40 wineries, including the famous Ponzi Vineyards. Travelers can sip on pinot noirs, pinot gris, chardonnays and Rieslings in the Willamette Valley region or walk the more than 64 acres of the Oregon Zoo and check out more than 2,000 animals from around the world before returning to the hotel near Portland to enjoy a refreshing “spa” treatment in the new mineral pool. The Courtyard also is near Multnomah Falls and Washington Square Mall.

No matter how guests spend their day, they will always return to the luxury of one of 137 rooms or 12 suites at the hotel in Beaverton, Oregon. Visitors are rest assured a comfortable night's sleep – sans red eyes if they use the new pool – with thick queen and king mattresses topped with custom comforters, cotton-rich sheets and plenty of fluffy down and feather pillows. The spacious rooms are equipped with 37-inch TVs and include amenities such as large work desks with ergonomic chairs, irons and ironing boards, coffeemakers, mini-refrigerators and complimentary high-speed Internet access.

Visitors can always refresh themselves at the new pool after refueling at The Bistro, which has raised the standard for breakfast and dinner with menus featuring seasonal fruits, burgers, pizzas, salads and sandwiches made from the freshest ingredients. The casual, café-style restaurant serves Starbucks coffee in addition to wines, custom cocktails and a variety of craft, imported and domestic beers.
