Vail Marriott Mountain Resort Takes Adventure To New Heights With Special Summer Deal

Package includes upgraded accommodations, $50 resort credit per night stayed at Vail resort

Vail, CO – Feeling adventurous, but not enough to challenge the laws of gravity in slope-style mountain biking or the GoPro Mountain Games in Vail? No need to fear.

The Vail Marriott Mountain Resort has a solution that will allow guests to discover great hiking, biking and rafting at their speed while taking in the excitement of the GoPro Games from June 6-9, earning resort credit and relaxing in luxury after an action-packed day. The Vail resort is offering \$50 in resort credit for every night booked plus complimentary room upgrades to tempt travelers. The resort credit will be applied to applicable charges on the guest bill at check-out and can be used towards fabulous on-site amenities such as Golden Leaf Spa and the Vail resort’s three outstanding restaurants.

The GoPro Mountain Games are the largest celebration of adventure sports, art and music in the United States. Professional and amateur athletes from around the world will gather in Vail to compete in nine sports and 25 disciplines for cash prizes of more than $100,000. Sports at this year’s Games include full-contact and freestyle kayaking; mountain, road and slope-style biking; sprint and cross stand-up paddling; mud and long-distance running; fly fishing, and rafting.

Extreme sports lovers also will appreciate music and art during the Games. Ballyhoo, a rock band with punk energy and pop reggae grooves, will offer a free concert to kick off the opening ceremonies. Austin, Texas-based Black Joe Lewis and the Honeybears are scheduled to bring their blues, soul and R&B sound, while Grouplove will perform their hits “Tongue Tied,” “Colours” and “Itchin on a Photograph.” Filmmakers from across the country also will showcase their newest outdoor movies with question-and-answer sessions following the screenings. Spectating is free, as is admission to concerts, films and expo areas with the latest gear. Some of the events for the GoPro Mountain Games are being held within walking distance of the Vail Marriott Mountain Resort, so guests will find a little extra adventure during their stays.

Whether in town to watch or participate in the Games, explore nature on their own or simply relax in the heated pools and luxurious spa at the Vail resort, visitors will find deluxe accommodations and high-tech services awaiting them come bedtime. Spacious rooms at the Vail resort feature comfortable beds with down comforters, custom duvets, cotton-rich linens and plenty of down and feather pillows for a sound night’s sleep. In-room safes offer peace of mind, while marble bathrooms, comfy robes and room service (from 6am to 11pm) are meant to pamper. Other high-end amenities guests can expect include mini-refrigerators, coffeemakers, 37-inch flat-screen TVs with premium movie channels, and complimentary high-speed Internet access throughout the hotel.

When not enjoying the Games, travelers can spend their $50 resort credit indulging in pure luxury at Golden Leaf Spa. Men, women, and couples can enjoy a full array of treatments such as body scrubs and wraps, massages, facials, manicures, pedicures and therapy baths. The spa also offers a fully-equipped fitness center, heated indoor and outdoor pools, and a steam room for the ultimate in relaxation.

Guests will surely work up an appetite, and that's where the three Vail resort restaurants come into play. 7one5 offers classic American cuisine for dinner, with special low-fat and low-carb menu items always available. Avalanche Pub is perfect for light hors d'oeuvres, burgers, salads and sandwiches for lunch or dinner, while First Chair Café is open just for breakfast and features an extensive buffet or classic favorites that include three-egg omelets, eggs benedict, blueberry pancakes, and crunchy French toast.

Travelers needing a little adventure in their lives can take advantage of the $50 resort credit deal by using promotional code ZX0 when booking online or calling 1-800-228-9290. The package is available now through Nov. 21, 2013, so guests who can't make the Games in June can still enjoy the benefits all summer long.
