ATTORNEY KARIN RILEY PORTER RECEIVES A PERFECT 10 OUT OF 10 RATING FROM AVVO

Washington, DC (May 03, 2013)– We are pleased to announce that Virginia criminal defense attorney Karin Riley Porter has been rated as a Superb 10 out of 10 on AVVO. The rating is calculated using a mathematical model that considers the information shown in a lawyer's profile, including a lawyer's years in practice, disciplinary history, professional achievements, and industry recognition.

That data comes from various sources, including public records (such as the state bar associations, regulatory agencies, and court records), published sources on the Internet (including lawyers' websites), and information that lawyers choose to supply to AVVO. This information is then considered and weighted by a mathematical model to arrive at a numerical rating from 1–10.

“It is an honor to be in the same category as so many other great Virginia criminal defense attorneys, says Karin.” I am humbled because it takes into account the reviews of both peers and clients.”

Karin Riley Porter is a criminal defense attorney who brings unique experience to her practice in the Commonwealth of Virginia. She is a graduate of Penn State University and earned her law degree, with honors, from George Mason University School of Law. After finishing law school, Ms. Porter had the honor of working for a Fairfax County Circuit Court judge as a law clerk.

Prior to joining Price Benowitz, Karin Riley Porter served nine years as an Assistant Commonwealth's Attorney in Virginia, handling cases ranging from DUIs to serious violent felonies. Ms. Porter is a member of the National College for DUI Defense and a Chair of the Economic Opportunities Commission of Alexandria. She is also a member of the Alexandria Bar Association and the Fairfax County Bar Association.

Ms. Porter's extensive experience as a prosecutor provides her with knowledge and training that set her apart from other criminal defense attorneys. She understands how law enforcement officers investigate crimes and how prosecutors build and prepare their cases for trial. This perspective allows her to build a strong defense strategy for each of her clients.
