HOTEL PRESTON INVITES TRAVELERS TO LIVE LIKE A MUSIC CITY STAR
WITH THE “NASHVILLE DREAMING” PACKAGE

May 15, 2013 – NASHVILLE, Tenn. – This summer, Music City’s Hotel Preston is giving travelers a chance to unleash their inner country queen, indie music darling, or southern rock star with the new “Nashville Dreaming” getaway package. Celebrating the creative spirit of the city, as captured in ABC’s star-studded Nashville, with access to the city’s musical landmarks and a real recording session, this package is perfect for TV junkies, music lovers and any traveler who wants to get to know the great city of Nashville while staying at the city’s most delightfully uncommon hotel.

No matter which Nashville character they love (or love to hate), guests will feel right at home at Hotel Preston where they will be welcomed with warm Southern hospitality and pampered like a true Music City diva with quirky on-request amenities like in-room lava lamps, rubber duckies for the bath and pet fish to keep them company. In addition to an overnight stay at Hotel Preston, guests who book “Nashville Dreaming” will get two tickets for a backstage tour of the Ryman Auditorium, the original home of the Grand Old Opry, and the chance to step up to the microphone in the Ryman’s recording studio and channel Rayna and Juliette as they record a professionally engineered duet to take home on a customized Ryman Records CD. Also included in the package is a $25 gift certificate to Scarlett and Gunnar’s favorite stomping grounds, The Blue Bird Café, to catch a show at Nashville’s most famous songwriter’s hangout. Last, but not least, guests will get two tickets to the Country Music Hall of Fame and copies of Volumes 1 and 2 of the Nashville soundtrack so they can keep the music alive.

The “Nashville Dreaming” package is available now through December 30, 2013 and priced from $219, plus tax. To book, guests can visit www.hotelpreston.com/nashville-hotel-specials.
