Residence Inn Orlando at SeaWorld Heats Up Summer With Newest, Coolest Deal Around

Hotel near SeaWorld Orlando offers guests up to 25 percent off to celebrate the start of the Antarctica Exhibit, featuring the most beloved animals to be found on that continent: penguins

Orlando, FL – The summer months are heating up, but the best entertainment takes the temperature down low — to freezing even. Guests coming down to experience SeaWorld Orlando’s all-new Antarctica: Empire of the Penguin attraction can reserve a hotel room at the Residence Inn Orlando at SeaWorld for rates that are subzero.

The latest hotel deal at this all-suites hotel in Orlando shaves off up to 25 percent of regular room rates, chipping the price away like an ice pick. The money that guests save by taking advantage of this great deal can be used toward tickets to nearby SeaWorld Orlando, where they will be transported to experience Antarctica: Empire of The Penguin, open on May 24. This all-new realm takes center stage and offers a perfect opportunity for family fun in the summer months. One of the most anticipated events to ever come to the amusement park, the new attraction allows visitors to explore the wonders of Antarctica through the eyes of a penguin. In addition to a first-of-its-kind, all-family adventure ride and up-close encounters with a huge colony of penguins, the realm will also include amazingly adorable gifts and delicious food.

Visitors to SeaWorld Orlando should be sure to check out the park’s other popular attractions as well. From live shows, to thrilling rides and attractions to unforgettable encounters with incredible animals, SeaWorld Orlando has become a favorite destination, particularly in the summer months.

After a long day at the park, guests can return to one of the premier hotels near SeaWorld Orlando. The all-suite hotel features plenty of family-friendly amenities that make traveling as a group easier. Spacious layouts provide plenty of room for everyone, while comfortable beds help guests fall asleep faster. Every day, guests staying at this Orlando, Florida, hotel wake up to complimentary hot breakfasts and can enjoy complimentary Internet access for the duration of their stays. If families have brought their cars, free parking is also available.

Visitors can also make use of the hotel’s complimentary scheduled transportation to SeaWorld and other destinations such as Universal Orlando, Discovery Cove and Aquatica, SeaWorld’s Waterpark. Guests staying at this all-suite hotel in Orlando also won’t have to worry about standing in line long, since the hotel offers complimentary Quick Queue Unlimited to cut down on waiting.

Guests who stay at the hotel also enjoy:

- 10 percent off at SeaWorld
