Room Renovations Keep Courtyard San Francisco Airport Flying High

Flexible work spaces, luxurious bedding and spacious bathrooms provide the optimum balance between productivity and relaxation at San Bruno hotel

San Bruno, CA - The 147-room Courtyard San Francisco Airport at 1050 Bayhill Drive in San Bruno, CA, has completed a major renovation of its guest rooms.

With the exciting remodel project, the hotel in San Bruno now offers a more comfortable and stylish room design. Thoughtfully planned, each room features plush bedding, a functional work space, spacious bathroom, separate seating area and complimentary high-speed Internet access. The ample work space and ergonomic chair enable guests to accomplish their tasks, while the 37-inch flat-screen TV provides a great break and opportunity for downtime enjoyment with 10 HD channels. Providing a warm, sophisticated environment, the rooms at the San Bruno hotel accommodate guests' desire to stay connected, productive and refreshed during their stays.

“From day one, Courtyard has prided itself as a brand that listens to what travelers want from a hotel,” said Janis Milham, vice president and global brand manager of Courtyard by Marriott. “Guests want to balance between working and relaxing, and our rooms enable them to be productive or unwind when traveling alone or with family.”

The San Bruno hotel's inviting lobby space and friendly associates welcome guests at all times of the day. Guests can dine at The Bistro - Eat. Drink. Connect., which offers refreshing breakfast choices and a variety of dinner and cocktail options. Coffee lovers can enjoy freshly brewed Starbucks coffee in the café-style eatery as well. The Market, a 24/7 shop for snacks, beverages and sundries, is always open for late-night cravings or the toothpaste guests may have forgotten to pack.

Throughout the San Bruno hotel, guests can connect to free Wi-Fi. The business library features several computers along with a printer and separate stations dedicated solely to printing airline boarding passes and checking flight statuses.

Green has been Courtyard's signature color since Marriott launched the brand 25 years ago. Now it is even greener with the introduction of a guest recycling program for the environment. Receptacles for paper, glass, plastic and metal are conveniently located by side exits at the San Bruno hotel.
