Costa Rica Marriott Hotel San Jose offers limited-time spa deal

Costa Rica hotel package includes deluxe accommodations, buffet breakfast for two and 30-minute massage

Heredia, Costa Rica – Travelers to Costa Rica can fully immerse themselves in the richness of the country with a new limited-time spa deal from the Costa Rica Marriott Hotel San Jose.

The Experience Spa Package includes deluxe accommodations at the Costa Rica hotel with rates from $229 to $255 per night as well as buffet breakfast for two and a 30-minute massage at Kuö Spa.

Kuö Spa features treatment rooms that offer comfort and technology but most importantly expert treatment providers who excel at everything from facials to body treatments and massages. Guests can indulge in the richness of tropical Costa Rica as coffee, volcanic ash and other local ingredients help create a restorative journey for body and soul.

The Costa Rica spa rejuvenates and recharges hotel guests with a variety of treatments. All 11 of the massages come with a welcoming ritual, and prices start at just $55 for 25 minutes of luxurious care. Four facial choices, which start at $59, offer organic ingredients, peels and a special anti-aging, antioxidant-rich treatment. Visitors can also try body scrubs and wraps, which include the country's rich coffee beans, to delight their senses and skin. The thermal mud and warmed essential oils of the body wraps soothe the mind and help relieve muscle aches and pains.

To complete their relaxing day, travelers can visit the salon, which offers restorative hair treatments and precision cut and styles for the entire family. Manicures and pedicures in massaging chairs finish the entire-body experience, at least in Costa Rica. Kuö Spa shop offers all of the products used in its treatments for sale so guests can continue their spa experience in their own homes.

One of the best spas in Costa Rica, Kuö Spa is on the grounds of the renowned Costa Rica hotel. The luxury hotel includes outdoor pools, a golf driving range and more to please any visitor. Spread over six floors, the Costa Rica Marriott San Jose offers amenities guests expect from every Marriott. High-speed Internet service is available in public areas and guest rooms. A knowledgeable concierge can point visitors in the right direction, while limousine service can take them anywhere in style.

Visitors who want to work off a long day of travel can use the large fitness center, which is open 24 hours a day and has an array of cardiovascular equipment and free weights. An outdoor pool is available as well, as is a whirlpool. Families can use the children's pool and play miniature golf.

Dining options at the San Jose, Costa Rica hotel include the La Isabela Tapas & Wine Cellar for Spanish dinners and meals all day at the Antigua restaurant and bar, which serves Latin American cuisine. The Casa del Cafe offers gourmet Costa Rican coffee, and the La Castilla lounge features exotic cocktails and live music.

Guests staying in one of 290 rooms or nine suites will rest easy on new bedding and plush mattresses. International cable TV, a mini-bar, coffeemaker and safe are just a few of the amenities in every room.

To take advantage of the Experience Spa Package, guests should use promotional code ZJ0 when booking online or calling 1-800-228-9290. The deal is valid Friday through Sunday through May 31.
