Los Sueños Marriott Ocean & Golf Resort Announces New Wedding Website

Hotel in Costa Rica includes information about services, facilities and packages while displaying gorgeous pictures on new website

Herradura, Costa Rica – Brides and grooms looking for a destination wedding in Costa Rica can plan one in style and with ease thanks to the Los Sueños Marriott Ocean & Golf Resort.

With its new wedding website, the Costa Rica resort makes creating and organizing weddings as enjoyable as walking down the tropical beaches. The resort's Pacific and rainforest views can't be equaled, and guests can even earn Marriott Rewards points while they dine, golf and relax in luxury.

Couples looking for a destination wedding in Costa Rica will find the Los Sueños wedding website has all the information they need at their fingertips. Outdoor weddings will be a hit in either the tropical or ocean gardens, and guests can find information about the 11,900 square feet of function space including the Herradura Ballroom.

Certified wedding planners can help complete all the details, including customized menus, cake creations and decorations. The planners also can help with traditional wedding services such as floral arrangements and music as well as photographers and videographers.

Guests who celebrate their wedding at the resort will enjoy a complimentary standard room the night of the wedding, a bottle of champagne and chocolate strawberries. If a wedding has more than 150 guests, the happy new couple will be upgraded to a master suite on the night of the big event. Also included the following day is breakfast for two in the room or at Restaurant La Vista. A group-rate discount applies for friends and family of the party on the night of the wedding.

Other available wedding packages feature massages for 10 people at Sibo Rainforest Spa and Retreat and even a gift for the bride. The full-service spa offers everything from facials to massages and has a steam room and therapy baths available.

The hotel in Costa Rica is less than two hours from San Jose and Juan Santamaria International Airport. Once in the area, visitors who enjoy golf and gaming can fill their days at the Costa Rica resort thanks to the La Iguana Golf Course and onsite casino. The La Iguana course is a 6,698-yard, par-72 course, and the casino offers adult fun for every wedding guest.

Guests who want to stretch out can use the fitness center and large outdoor pool. A jogging trail is also onsite, as are volleyball and tennis courts. Families can play miniature golf or take part in the many activities at the Tortuga Kids Club.

Travelers who are looking for high-flying thrills should try nearby zip-lining for an adventure during a rainforest canopy tour. This safe and easy activity for people of all ages provides up-close views of exotic animals as well as distant natural vistas. Other activities to try include deep-sea fishing next to the resort or a walk on the pristine beaches of Manuel Antonio National Park, an hour's drive away.

While at the hotel, guests can enjoy all types of fare. From sandwiches to casual dining, the resort offers many choices for breakfast, lunch and dinner. The Casa del Cafe offers homemade pastries and more than 30 Costa Rican coffee combinations to sample. The Nuevo Latino, meanwhile, is a specialty dining venue featuring Latin American cuisine during the evening.

Guests can finish off the day by relaxing in luxury in one of 191 rooms or 10 suites. All rooms offer luxurious bedding and designer duvets and have Pacific Ocean, mountain or garden views. High speed Internet, international cable TV, in-room safes, Bath and Body Works products in bathrooms and mini-bars are among the amenities all guests will enjoy.

The Los Sueños Marriott Ocean & Golf Resort offers a wide range of wedding packages and activities to please every guest. For information about the resort and its wedding packages, visit the new website or call 1-888-236-2427.
