The Resort at Longboat Key Club Welcomes Florida Residents For Staycation with Special Deal

Florida hotel deal offers $100 in resort credit each night residents stay at the resort

Longboat Key, FL – Florida residents have plenty of options when it comes to vacationing, and none of them are particularly far away. A special new deal at The Resort at Longboat Key Club tops them all and offers one of the most attractive new deals for residents looking to enjoy a nice long getaway.

The Florida Resident Hotel Deal offers those living in the Sunshine State a special $100 resort credit each night they stay. Known for its beautiful location on a private beach, The Resort at Longboat Key Club is the perfect destination to unwind throughout the summer. The credit can be applied to any of the resort's activities, including savoring delectable foods at one of six restaurants, playing 45 holes of championship golf, swinging a racquet on one of 20 courts at the Tennis Gardens and having your child take part in the Camp Loggerhead.

This special offer is available until Sept. 30, 2013, giving residents plenty of time to enjoy this Florida hotel deal. The resort credit is granted on a per-room basis.

Remaining credit cannot be exchanged or refunded and cannot be used toward the room rate, taxes or resort fee.

Regardless of how Florida residents enjoy their hotel discount, they are sure to appreciate the spacious and luxurious accommodations. Each of the rooms at this Florida resort features high-speed Internet access, mini-bar, plush beds and a private balcony overlooking the surrounding area. Other amenities include a 42-inch flat-screen television in the living room and a 32-inch LCD television in the bedroom.

After reading in their rooms, guests can lounge by the pool, head to the beach or grab a bite to eat at one of the exceptional restaurants. With $100 in resort credit, guests can make the most of a staycation without having to spend too much extra money.
