San Diego Marriott Mission Valley Upgrades Rooms, Lobby In $9 Million Renovation

Guests of the Mission Valley hotel will experience new bedding, décor, furnishings and lighting in rooms

San Diego, CA – Visitors to Southern California who want to experience the ultimate in comfort with upgraded amenities can now stay in style at the newly renovated San Diego Marriott Mission Valley.

A $9 million remodel touched nearly every corner of the hotel, from guest rooms and the lobby to outdoor spaces and concierge lounge.

Guest rooms were the main focus of the project, so visitors will now find it easier to relax and be productive while enjoying incredible city views from one of 345 rooms and five suites. All rooms at the Mission Valley hotel now boast new bedding, décor, furnishings and lighting that complement private patios or balconies. Work areas have ergonomic chairs and mobile writing tables. High-speed wireless Internet access makes it easy for guests to conduct business or surf the Web to find the many things to do and see in the San Diego area. Visitors also can watch premium cable television and use Web TV. The hotel's telephone system was upgraded, and laptop safes and a new heating and cooling system were added for premium comfort. Rooms also have new lock systems to give travelers extra peace of mind.

As part of the renovation, another floor of concierge-level rooms was created so travelers can take pleasure in a few extra luxurious touches while staying at one of the premier Mission Valley hotels. The concierge lounge, open Monday through Friday, also was upgraded and offers complimentary food to guests staying in the spacious rooms on that level. Visitors can appreciate a full American breakfast, hors d'oeuvres and desserts as well as a late-night snack. Non-alcoholic beverages are included, and cocktails are available for a fee.

The renovation touched the lobby and outdoor areas of the resort-style San Diego Mission Valley hotel. More comfortable seating and work areas make the welcome center even more functional. Exterior spaces have gone extra green with additional seating areas where visitors can enjoy

Southern California's great weather surrounded by new native plants and gardens that have reduced the hotel's water consumption by as much as 80 percent.

"We spent a great deal of time listening to guest comments with regard to what they felt would enhance their experience," said Erikk Hilgert, general manager of the Mission Valley hotel. "As a result, our renovation plan included many of these improvements as well as items which we felt would make our property greener, more guest-friendly and more operationally efficient."

As one of the most convenient hotels in Mission Valley, the San Diego Marriott provides quick access to beaches and entertainment. The Rio Vista Trolley takes travelers to many of San Diego's main attractions. The Westfield Mission Valley mall has more than 100 stores and is home to AMC Theaters. Families will learn more about nature while having a fun day at the San Diego Zoo Safari Park. The park offers a view of many exotic animals including elephants, giraffes, lions, tigers and cheetahs.

Other attractions close to the hotel near Old Town San Diego are the Gaslamp Quarter for dining, entertainment and shopping, SeaWorld San Diego and Qualcomm Stadium, home of the San Diego Chargers.

After the $9 million renovation, the San Diego Marriott Mission Valley has become one of the most luxurious options for travelers to experience deluxe accommodations, multiple amenities and a great location.
