Belvoir Federal Credit Union Welcomes New Installation Liaison

Woodbridge, VA, June 11, 2013 — Belvoir Federal introduces Sharon Leake as the credit union’s new Installation Liaison and Membership Development Officer. For more than 35 years, Sharon has specialized in membership support and sales. Sharon’s expertise will be fundamental in her new role at Belvoir Federal Credit Union as she assists with membership development on Fort Belvoir Army Installation and surrounding communities.

After working for Belvoir Federal for seven years, Sharon has expanded her role from a Membership Service Representative to Installation Liaison in an effort to build relationships with Fort Belvoir and lend her leadership skills to surrounding agencies on post. With her extensive background in the military lifestyle, financial products and services, consistent top producer of financial products, and a proven track record in forming loyal relationships, Belvoir Federal is pleased to have Sharon as a part of the Marketing and Membership Development team.

“I am excited to welcome Sharon to our team. Her knowledge of the credit union coupled with her experience with member service will allow us to continue our dedicated relationship with Ft. Belvoir and other agencies,” stated Jason Lindstrom, CMO of Belvoir Federal.

Sharon has lived in and around Fort Belvoir for the past 12 years, establishing a number of relationships and she thrives at the opportunity to expand her role with the Fort Belvoir community. In fact, Sharon stated, “Belvoir is my home base and I am proud to serve the soldiers, sailors, airmen, marines, guardsmen, families, and civilians who form the team that defends our constitution and our great nation. With this promotion, I look forward to helping grow credit union membership and expand our relationship with Fort Belvoir.”
