Trent Burris Moves Into the Role of Operations Manager at Cirrus Medical Staffing

Healthcare Operations Veteran Burris Returns to Cirrus as Operations Manager after a Brief Sabbatical

Charlotte, NC — Cirrus Medical Staffing (www.cirrusmedicalstaffing.com), an industry leader in travel nursing and allied healthcare staffing, today announced that Trent Burris has been promoted to Operations Manager.

Effective immediately, Trent is responsible for managing the company's accounting division, specifically focusing on the efficiency and effectiveness of its payroll, billing, and collection departments. Burris now also heads human resources and administration, which focuses on the needs and job satisfaction of Cirrus' internal employees. One of Burris' many responsibilities includes the management of the company's 401K plan.

Burris has been with the company for over six years. He joined Cirrus in June of 2005 as an Accounting Specialist. He was promoted to Payroll Manager in 2006, a position he held until June of 2012 when he took a sabbatical to pursue other projects. He returned to Cirrus in April of this year.

"We're very pleased to have Trent back," said Randy Holloran, President of Cirrus Medical Staffing. "He provides inestimable value to the company with his work knowledge and skill set. Our rapid growth requires the type of top-level leadership and experience that Trent delivers."

“I am extremely excited to return to Cirrus,” Burris said. “I look forward to serving as Operations Manager and working with our Senior Management Team to help take our organization to the next level. I am extremely privileged to work with a very talented and dynamic group of employees. Our greatest asset is our people.”
