JW Marriott Las Vegas Resort & Spa Celebrates Honors with Summer Special

Las Vegas resort package include deluxe accommodations, $25 resort credit

Las Vegas, NV – With the sizzle of summer just around the corner, the JW Marriott Las Vegas Resort & Spa wants to tout just how hot it is according to readers of the Las Vegas Review-Journal and Condé Nast Traveler by offering special deals so all of the world can experience its luxury.

The 2013 Las Vegas Review-Journal's readers' poll honored the Las Vegas resort with four awards. More than 12,300 people voted in 149 categories, and winners were announced in a special 96-page print section in the newspaper and on its website. Three of the Summerlin Las Vegas restaurants at the resort – Shizen Japanese Teppanyaki + Sushi Bar, Spiedini Ristorante and Promenade Café – and the Spa Aquae were praised in their respected categories.

- Shizen Japanese Teppanyaki + Sushi Bar won Best Asian Restaurant for the “showmanship” of its chefs at the teppanyaki tables. The casual eatery, open for dinner, is known for its fresh sushi and sashimi.
- Spiedini Ristorante received accolades as Best Italian Restaurant, with kudos given to Chef Gustav Mauler and his food “creations.” The chef utilizes the best seasonal ingredients to offer Italian regional dishes in an environment where guests dress up for dinner.
- Promenade Café took second place honors in the coffee shop category. The casual nook overlooking the casino serves a variety of American fare 24 hours a day.
- Spa Aquae also received second place in the spa category. The 40,000-square-foot spa pampers all of its guests with services including signature experiences like the Shirodhara Ritual and Healing Hydration Wrap, plus a variety of packages and couples massages. The full service salon offers manicures, pedicures, makeup applications, haircuts and styles. Visitors are graced with luxurious robes, comfortable sandals, private lockers and full bath amenities.

Readers of Condé Nast Traveler also have taken a shine to the resort in Las Vegas, rating it in the Top 5 of all resorts in the city for its “quiet and comfortable” environment that is a “refreshing change from most other over-the-top resorts closer to downtown.” The survey took into account a hotel’s rooms, service, food and dining options, overall design and location. The hotel received an 85.2 overall score on a scale of 100.

To celebrate all of these honors, the JW Marriott is offering a happy hour deal and a mid-week summer package so visitors can soak up the sun and greatness of the Las Vegas resort. From 4 to 7 p.m. on Fridays, guests can enjoy the relaxing waters of the resort’s sparkling outdoor pool while sipping on half-priced beers and frozen drinks and appetizers. Other specials include:
