

Fountainhead Mobile Announces Launch of The American Congress of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG) Mobile App

Fountainhead Mobile Solutions (FMS), a cutting-edge provider of mobile solutions for membership organizations, today announced the availability of The American Congress of Obstetricians and Gynecologists' (ACOG) mobile app for iPhone and iPad.

The new app allows the organization's more than 57,000 members to stay connected with authoritative information from the leading experts in women's health and contains a range of valuable features including:

- Clinical practice guidelines highlighting the top 25 Committee Opinions
- Immunization schedule, individualized vaccine recommendations, FAQs, alerts, and resource tools
- Daily alerts, including top women's health in the news
- Patient FAQs
- Pause magazine for peri- and menopausal women
- Annual Clinical Meeting information

The ACOG app was developed using FMS' innovative MOBL™ platform which allow associations to quickly and cost-effectively deploy comprehensive mobile solutions that consolidate all organization mobile initiatives into a single app.

"Membership organizations worldwide face the daunting challenge of keeping pace with the dynamic changes in mobile technology, and we are thrilled to be working with a group such as ACOG to highlight what is possible," said Chad Roberts, founder and CEO of FMS. "We have only scratched the surface of the value that can be provided to ACOG members on their mobile device and look forward to future upgrades."

The ACOG App is available for immediate download in the App Store, with an Android version to follow soon.
