

Selection.com chosen as preferred provider of background checks for well-known staffing company

Selection.com was chosen among many criminal background check providers to be a preferred provider to Express Employment Professionals, a well-known staffing company with over 600 locations.

(CINCINNATI, OHIO)

Selection.com, a leading provider of criminal background check services was recently named a preferred provider of background checks for one of the largest staffing companies in the country. Express Employment Professionals have been trusting Selection.com with their background checks since 2009- specifically, their "Search America" report which provides an instant search of their proprietary national criminal database.

A company spokesperson said, "Express Employment Professionals is proud to announce Selection.com as a preferred provider of pre-employment background checks." Meanwhile, a franchise owner, Mike Epsztein, had this to say: "I want to express my total satisfaction with Selection.com. Their responsiveness and their assistance every time I have a question is fantastic!"

“ Their responsiveness and their assistance every time I have a question is fantastic! ”

The company’s mission at Selection.com is to provide the highest level of customer service in the criminal background check industry every day. They’re able to deliver that level of customer service because their customer support staff, on average, has been with the company almost 8 years. “Experience means knowledge, and knowledge means we get our clients the answers they need,” said Jim Boeddeker, Selection.com’s President. “We take pride in knowing that our work helps protect our clients from potentially bad hires.”

Express Employment Professionals has been helping people find jobs and help businesses find people for nearly 30 years. They have a network of more than 600 franchise locations in the United States, Canada, and South Africa.

Selection.com has been a leading provider of background checks for over 20 years and thousands of clients across the country trust them with their business, including hundreds of staffing companies. Since they started, Selection.com has screened tens of millions of job applicants.
