You're Unique, And so are we.

Until now, travellers could only book vacations based on destination or activity. Yet when we have an incredible travel experience, inevitably there is a human element involved. "The people are wonderful!" is something you commonly hear from returning travellers. Or "We hired a local guide and she took us to places where tourists rarely go."

At GuideAdvisor we believe guides, and their relationship with travellers, are even more important to the travel experience than location and activity. So we've created a human-powered forum that brings guides and travellers together to create the best trips in the world.

What we do, How we do it.

As a traveller, you'll be able log on to GuideAdvisor and research guides through their comprehensive profiles, their trip offerings and the reviews and ratings given to them by former clients. After that, it's a simple matter of using our reservation system to book the best vacation experience of your life!

Whether you're looking for an interpreter to take you on a tour through a foreign city or a guide to lead you to the top of a mountain, GuideAdvisor is your one stop source for all things adventure.

Here are just a few of the things you can do on our site:

- Peruse the extensive profiles of guides around the world and research what type of trips they offer.
- Contact the guides to further discuss particulars of their tours.
- Use our powerful booking engine to reserve your trip.
- Rate and review the guides you've travelled with.

The Report Vital Stats.
