BAAB Writing and Marketing Services LLC
Quality, On-Time Solutions

Your Business Writing and Marketing Consultant

With extensive professional experience, we have an impressive portfolio of projects and have worked with some of the largest employers in Northeast Ohio and throughout the United States. Is that enough for you to hire us? Could be, but aren't you looking for a consultant that can lighten your load? That's where we shine.

We ask questions during the initial phone consultation to make sure we understand your goals. While we will always keep you informed on the progress of your project, we won't overwhelm you with phone calls or emails. When you hire us to do a job, we handle it.

Frequently Asked Questions

What is your process for providing writing and marketing services?

We will set up a complimentary call to discuss your needs (project goals, scope of work, deadline, etc.). After the initial consultation, you will receive a cost estimate that outlines project details, timeline and proposed fees for the requested service. Once you approve the quote and pay the deposit, we will schedule your project based on the dates included in the cost estimate.

We will contact you with questions as needed and welcome you to call or email us with feedback and questions as often as you like.

How are your services priced?

All projects are different and we will price according to your specific needs. We offer hourly and project rates depending upon the most cost-effective solution for you. You'll never need to worry about hidden fees with us. We provide written cost estimates prior to starting all projects. Contact us today for your FREE consultation.

What forms of payment do you accept?

You can pay by check or money order or visit our website to pay by credit card or electronic draft using PayPal.

Do you require upfront payments?

Yes, we require a 30% deposit before starting writing and marketing projects.

What is your turnaround time?

We offer on-time, quality writing and marketing solutions. We have never missed a client deadline and will provide rush services when necessary.
