Make Her Crave You a new attraction training system for men has just been released to the public creating a buzz of excitement through out the men's dating advice community, and prompting an in depth review by PUABooks.net's Clint Johnson.

"Our website PUABooks.net caters to men who looking to significantly improve their dating lives, so we are always eager to review the latest dating advice and attraction training guides as soon as they become available in order to separate the wheat from the chaff." reports Johnson. "When we were heard about Greg Hart and Slade Shaw's new Make Her Crave You system we were excited to take a look at the course material, to see if it was a resource we would want to recommend to our readers. According to Hart this is the first system ever for transforming into the man women can't resist, and we wanted to see if their was indeed any validity to that statement."

Johnson's Make Her Crave You review reveals that the system is available digitally online, allowing customers instant access to all training materials. In addition to the main "Make Her Crave You" manual, customers also receive a training guide on become a sensual "dynamo", and guide to "social mastery" as well as other audio bonuses.

"While many so-called 'dating coaches' contend that success on the dating scene is little more than a numbers game, Shaw and Hart take a decidedly different stance," says Johnson. "The whole idea behind Make Her Crave You is that a guy can actually transform himself into a man who radiates masculinity, and who as a result stands out to women like a beacon of light in the darkness. This is a concept that we discussed at length in our review. It's a refreshing approach to attraction that will likely inspire a lot of guys to step up their game."
