Courtyard Scottsdale Salt River Turns Up Heat on Summer Deals

Concerts, luxury shopping and golf make Scottsdale hotel a perfect stop for weekend getaways

Scottsdale, AZ – Travelers looking for entertainment, world-class shopping and golf all in one general location will find the Scottsdale and Phoenix areas a hot place to vacation now through September. And with the value and convenience offered by the Courtyard Scottsdale Salt River, the adventure can be even hotter.

With rates that start at just $59 per night, the Scottsdale hotel is the perfect choice for travelers looking for a quick getaway and offers plenty of things to do. Complimentary Wi-Fi Internet access and a free local shuttle allow guests to relax online or shop in Old Town Scottsdale.

Baseball fans will love the easy access to Salt River Fields, which is less than 2 miles away from the hotel in Scottsdale. Arizona League baseball games are a great way to spend summer evenings. Fans can see future stars of such teams as the Arizona Diamondbacks, Chicago Cubs, Los Angeles Dodgers and San Francisco Giants. The rookie-league games are a great deal, as both admission and parking are free.

Country music fans will take over the baseball stadium at Salt River Fields on Aug. 10, 2013, when Tim McGraw hits the stage. The Grammy-award winning singer has hits such as "I Like It, I Love It," "She Never Lets It Go to Her Heart," "Something Like That," and "Grown Men Don't Cry."

The Scottsdale hotel's free shuttle delivers guests to Salt River Fields, Casino Arizona and Old Town Scottsdale. The many shops of the district offer quality Native American crafts, including Navajo rugs. In downtown Scottsdale, more than 320 shops and 90 restaurants offer a wide variety of choices, while a weekly farmer's market and ArtWalk allow visitors to stretch their legs during the evening while seeing some beautiful local artwork.

For shoppers who are looking for indoor luxury, the Scottsdale Fashion Square is the largest mall in Arizona and offers something for everyone. Anchor stores include Nordstrom, Dillard's, Barneys New York and Neiman Marcus. Other stores include Burberry, Gucci, H&M and Tiffany & Co. Guests looking for that special gift could take a full day to see all the stores and dining options.

With more than 200 golf courses a short drive away from the hotel, the Courtyard Scottsdale Salt River is in a virtual golfing paradise. Guests can start their days on the course, shop in the middle and then relax at the hotel near Salt River Fields and watch the sunset behind the mountains. The Scottsdale accommodations feature some of the biggest comforts of home including flat-screen TVs, mini-refrigerators and microwaves. Visitors can rest assured a sound night's sleep on one king or two queen beds topped with crisp lines, custom comforters and plenty of fluffy down and feather pillows.

Besides spacious guest rooms and an updated, modern lobby, the hotel features The Bistro - Eat. Drink. Connect. open for breakfast, lunch and dinner. The casual café-style eatery has helped raise the standard for dining with menus featuring seasonal fruits, burgers, pizzas, salads and sandwiches made from the freshest ingredients. The restaurant sports a large communal table, where families or small groups of business travelers can gather for a hearty meal, and comfortable bar seating so guests can sip on freshly brewed Starbucks drinks, a number of craft, domestic and imported beers and custom-ordered cocktails concocted by a friendly bartender.

One of the premier hotels near Salt River Fields, Fashion Square and Old Town Scottsdale, the Courtyard Scottsdale Salt River offers the low weekend rates, mountain views and amenities leisure visitors will love and the convenience and location that business travelers demand.
