Courtyard Myrtle Beach Broadway Updates Lobby, Refreshes Meeting Rooms

Myrtle Beach Convention Center hotel now features The Bistro, GoBoard as well as plenty of comfortable seating in welcome center

Myrtle Beach, S.C. – Relaxing on the beach or playing a great round of golf is better than ever thanks to a renovation at the Courtyard Myrtle Beach Broadway.

Now with a newly refreshed lobby, restaurant and meeting areas, the Myrtle Beach Convention Center hotel offers guests more options to quickly begin enjoying the splendid summer days in the “Seaside Golf Capital of the World.”

The new Bistro – Eat. Drink. Connect. is just part of the $800,000 renovation and offers visitors breakfast and dinner in a café-style environment. In the morning, guests can jump-start their days with Starbucks coffee and American fare, while dinner options include sandwiches, burgers and pizza. Guests can use The Bistro's to-go service to have dinner at the beach while sipping wine or imported beer from the hotel near Broadway at the Beach.

One of the premier hotels near the Myrtle Beach Convention Center, the Courtyard now features a new touchscreen GoBoard so guests can see local weather, discover nearby restaurants and even download driving directions to their smartphones.

The new lobby also has spacious table areas, private nooks and comfortable chairs and couches where guests can use complimentary Wi-Fi for business or pleasure.

Besides the updated lobby, guests can enjoy a refreshing dip in the outdoor pool, grab a quick workout at the fitness center or host a small meeting or social gathering in 1,250 square feet of meeting space that has been updated with fresh paint and carpet.

Conveniently situated in Myrtle Beach, the hotel is just minutes from more than 100 premiere golf courses. After a round on the links, visitors can head to the Atlantic Ocean, just a mile away, and Broadway at the Beach for dining, shopping and attractions. The Myrtle Beach Convention Center hotel is also close to the Myrtle Beach Airport, Coastal Carolina University and Ripley's Aquarium, which features activities for the entire family.

Visitors will love the remodeled hotel near Broadway at the Beach, and summer deals will make for an even better vacation.

Travelers can take advantage of a $25 dining credit or have a day at the ballpark with the Sports Fun Pelicans Baseball Package. The dining credit is good at The Bistro or The Market convenience store. The baseball package includes deluxe accommodations and two adult tickets to see the Myrtle Beach Pelicans, a minor league affiliate of the Texas Rangers. The dining credit deal is good through Aug. 31, 2013, and the baseball package is valid until Sept. 2, 2013. Use promotional code ZJ8 for the dining credit or SPE for the baseball package. .
