

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACTS:

Ralph DiBart
New Rochelle BID
ralphdibart@rcn.com
914-0960-1460/212-866-0191

Bo Kemp
Urban Fresh Food Markets LLC
bokemp@yahoo.com
917-744-6456

The New Rochelle Downtown Grand Market Adds New Farms and Vendors Beginning August 3rd!

New Rochelle, NY, August 3, 2013 – The New Rochelle Downtown Grand Market is open every Saturday to hundreds of visitors and to more than two dozen vendors at 1 Library Plaza from 9am to 2pm. The festive neighborhood farmers market features local farm-fresh fruit and produce, fish, meats, cheeses, baked goods and many other specialty foods. The success of this first year farmers market has continued to attract several vendors that will be available at the August 3rd market including:

Bobolink Dairy and Bakeyard – Artisanal raw milk cheeses from 100% grass fed cows and artisanal breads

R&R Farms – Specializing in Mexican produce such as pipiche, alache and two kinds of papalo and chiles Ready Set Sharp Knife Sharpening – Knife sharpening services turning dull to sharp blades.

Little Luscious Dessert Company – Fantastic fresh dessert by local food entrepreneur featured in the New York Times

...and many more! Visit www.NewRochelleGrandMarket.com

In addition, the August 3rd market will feature the Coromandel Indian Restaurant as a vendor and music and family entertainment from 11am to 1pm.

About New Rochelle Grand Market

The Grand Market is sponsored by the New Rochelle Downtown Business Improvement District (NRBID), Monroe College and Green Mountain Energy and will be held every Saturday from June 1 through October 26 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on 1 Library Green next to the New Rochelle Public Library on Huguenot Street between Memorial Highway and Lawton Street. To learn more about how the New Rochelle Grand Market aims to grow, nourish and inspire our community, become a Twitter follower, Facebook fan, blog reader and visit www.newrochellegrandmarket.com.