Courtyard Seattle Bellevue/Redmond Wins TripAdvisor Honor

Hotel near Microsoft campus rated highly by guests, receives 2013 Certificate of Excellence

Bellevue, WA – The West Coast has just gotten just a tad bit hotter thanks to the spotlight being shined on the Courtyard Seattle Bellevue/Redmond for earning a prestigious honor from the world's largest travel website.

The hotel in Bellevue, Washington, has received a 2013 Certificate of Excellence from TripAdvisor for maintaining an overall rating of four or higher on a scale of five as ranked by travelers. The number of reviews received in the last 12 months also played a factor in presenting the award, now in its third year. TripAdvisor sees more than 50 million unique monthly visitors and sports more than 60 million reviews and opinions on businesses related to the tourism industry.

Guests praised the hotel near the Microsoft campus as being a good choice for “anyone looking for a central Bellevue location – it is surrounded by shops and restaurants” and being “a quiet property in a very nice upscale business area.” The staff was “absolutely great.” Guest Rach_Hua from Taipei thought the “Internet was fast, big clean cozy room, nice layout and pretty fitness center.” Guest Badq45t from Half Moon Bay, California, wrote it was the “go-to hotel when going up for business to MSFT.” Meanwhile, Michael Y from San Diego, California, thought “the managers and staff were very cool! I enjoyed the property and the breakfast was great.”

These comments from guests put a warm smile on the face of Courtyard Seattle Bellevue/Redmond General Manager Joyce Dozark.

“We are extremely pleased that guests of our hotel take comfort in our well-appointed rooms, convenient services and hard-working associates,” Dozark said. “We constantly strive to exceed expectations and remain dedicated to offering the highest level of service with the warmest smiles. We very much appreciate our guests for their constant support and positive feedback.”
