SUMMARY: PUABooks.net releases a review of The FB Seduction System a newly launched dating guide for men which promises to reveal the secrets to meeting single women on Facebook. An exclusive bonus package for PUABooks.net readers has also been made available.

The Facebook Seduction System a new home training course for men wishing to meet single ladies on Facebook has just been released to the public. The controversial program from renowned dating guru Dean Cortez and Brandon Buckley has sent shock waves through the men's online "pick-up community", prompting an investigative review from PUABooks.net's Clint Johnson.

"People use Facebook for a variety of reasons," reports Johnson. "From keeping in touch with old friends, to goofing around with co-workers, or promoting one's businesses, this website is many things to many people. For single guys though, the millions and millions of attractive single women with Facebook profiles is probably the biggest draw to the website. The idea that one can browse around and find somebody to date is tantalizing. However that being said, meeting women on Facebook can prove challenging. We have received quite a bit of mail from guys who are disgruntled by the lack of success that they have had on Facebook. So, naturally when we heard about Dean Cortez's new FB Seduction System, we were very eager to take a look at the course, and see if it was something we felt could help guys with their Facebook pick up attempts."

Johnson's review reveals that the system is available digitally online allowing customers instant access to the complete multimedia training course. Topics covered include how to set up one's Facebook profile to avoid repelling women, how to get a fun and flirtatious conversation going, and how to flip a woman's "attraction switch" and make her want to meet up offline.

"The program's co-creator Dean Cortez became a something of a legend in the men's dating advice community after the release of his M.A.C.K. Tactics program, so we went in to this with very high expectations," says Johnson. "One thing we really liked, which we discussed in our review, was the very systematic approach Cortez took to meeting women on Facebook. Rather than offering theory, Cortez offers clear instructions on how to 'paint the right picture of yourself' to intrigue and attract women."
