

Dykema signs Managed Services Agreement with Iris Data Services Managed Litigation Services Company Delivers Scalable Relativity Environment to Leading Commercial Law Firm

CHICAGO, August 20, 2013 — Iris Data Services, a leading provider of managed litigation services, announced today it has signed a managed services agreement with Dykema to provide kCura's Relativity document review platform and processing capability through the Iris Discovery Management program which includes Discovery Consulting, Electronic Discovery Processing, and Data Hosting using kCura's e-discovery platform, Relativity. Dykema is a leading national law firm with offices throughout the United States. Iris Data Services is a leading supplier of discovery solutions including electronic discovery, managed litigation services, and document review technologies such as kCura's Relativity, which includes Relativity Analytics and Relativity Assisted Review.

"Dykema wanted a managed services provider that could host and assist with administration of our entire kCura Relativity review environment and quick-turn processing," said Scott Pilat, Manager of Legal Technology and Litigation Support for Dykema. "Iris provides us both the infrastructure support as well as extensive Relativity experience. Iris' comprehensive managed services model will allow Dykema to spend less time managing vendors and litigation technologies and more time doing what we do best, practicing law."

"Iris will host Dykema's Relativity license in our secure, SSAE 16 certified data center and manage the associated technical infrastructure and storage," said Scott Berger, Iris' Vice President of Managed Services. "Besides Iris' Relativity expertise, the advantages of the enhancements Iris provides to Relativity such as case management, custom reporting, and foreign language translation will allow Dykema case teams to more efficiently review and isolate the relevant documents for a matter."

About Iris Discovery Management

Iris Discovery Management (DM) is a managed services platform for law firms and corporations who are dissatisfied with the internal capital and overhead expense or the continual investment and time spent outsourcing discovery needs. Iris Discovery Management blends best of breed solutions and technical expertise with the ability for litigation departments to evaluate current electronic discovery spend, ultimately increasing their client serving abilities. Unlike outsourcing every discovery service or paying higher capital investment to keep it internal, Iris has assembled a subscription-based package that includes dedicated applications & infrastructure, discovery consulting, forensics collection & culling, eDiscovery processing, data hosting using kCura's e-discovery platform, Relativity, data analytics, and attorney document review.
