

Charles A. Mancuso
Mediation Counsel
 as of Nov. 1, 2013

Chuck Mancuso graduated from Florida State University in 1984 with a B.S. degree in Criminology and a Certificate of Law Enforcement. In 1987, he received his Juris Doctor degree after two years at the University of Florida Levin College of Law.

The Florida Bar admitted Chuck when he was 24, and he became a civil trial attorney, who at 27 was one of the youngest attorneys in the nation to successfully litigate a multiple wrongful death action for a recovery in excess of two million dollars. He has litigated, as lead chair, over 2,400 cases to completion.

He became a certified Supreme Court mediator in 1994, providing pro bono services to both The Florida Bar Grievance Mediation Program and the Circuit Judge Pro Bono Mediation Program for the 15th and 17th Judicial Circuits as well as the United States Postal Service. As a mediator, Chuck is noted for his dedication and perseverance in pursuing successful resolutions.

Chuck's involvement in the community is as impressive as his productive professional career. From his involvement in the Boy Scouts to the Knights of Columbus, where he served as Chairman of Family Services; to the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks; to coaching youth soccer, baseball and football; to the Palm Beach County School Board, Chuck remains actively engaged with our South Florida community.

Along with his wife and two children, Chuck enjoys a wide range of outdoor activities including fishing, camping, athletics, travel and deep sea diving. He is a certified dive master and a member of the Professional Association of Diving Instructors.
