Springfield Marriott Thrills Guests With New Summer Offer

Tickets to Six Flags amusement park included in Springfield hotel deal

Springfield, MA – Summer has never been more fun thanks to a new deal from the Springfield Marriott that encourages adventure while visiting The City of Firsts.

With the Experience Six Flags of New England Package, this Springfield hotel special provides a great way to begin any stay in the area. The deal includes deluxe accommodations from $213 to $273 per night and two adult tickets to the amusement park.

Six Flags New England is only 6 miles from the hotel and offers fun for the entire family. Classic amusement park rides such as carousels and miniature trains offer entertainment for younger children, while older kids and adults will find maximum excitement on Batman: The Dark Knight, Goliath and Scream.

Traditional thrill seekers will enjoy the Cyclone, one of the longest wooden coasters in the world, while others will scream during the twisted ride of Bizarro, named the No. 2 steel coaster of 2011 by Amusement Today.

Family rides include Balloon Race, New England Skyway and Splashwater Falls. Visitors can keep the kids moving with entertainment options that include the Daffy

Duck Dance Party and Looney Tunes' We Got the Beat. Other activities include a July 4 fireworks show as well as concerts and themed 5K running events throughout the summer.

Another great feature of Six Flags is Hurricane Harbor, the largest water park in New England. Included in the ticket price for Six Flags, Hurricane Harbor offers water rides from the most relaxing river trips to spine-tingling slides. Luxury cabanas can also be rented if visitors want a break from the action.

Guests of this Six Flags New England hotel also can visit other local attractions. The Basketball Hall of Fame includes hands-on exhibits, and the Dr. Seuss Memorial sculpture garden is adjacent to several museums and the Springfield City Library.

After a day on the town, guests can return to the hotel in Springfield and use the fitness equipment for a workout or just relax in the indoor pool.

Guests will always have comfort to return to after a long, fun day at Six Flags. The Springfield Marriott features luxurious bedding in its quest rooms and suites and marble floors and granite sinks in the bathrooms. Other room amenities include the Plug-in Panel to connect laptops to the television and work desks with ergonomic chairs. In-room mini-refrigerators and coffeemakers help guests get ready for the adventure at Six Flags.

The Springfield Marriott has two dining options. Currents restaurant is for classic favorites with a twist during breakfast, lunch or dinner. An extensive wine list adds to the unique menu. Champions Sports Bar is one of the most popular in Springfield and offers 20 plasma televisions as well as a 10-foot screen to watch the biggest sporting events while enjoying classic American fare.

With school out for the summer, families can enjoy the rolling hills of summertime New England for a weekend trip or longer vacation. The Springfield Marriott and its Six Flag package are a great way to enjoy lazy summer days.

Book the Experience Six Flags of New England Package online or by calling 1-800-228-9290 and using promotional code THM. The offer is valid through Oct. 27, 2013.
