

The Dating Younger Women Program: Review Examining Adam Gilad's Controversial Guide Released

SUMMARY: PUABooks.net releases a review of The Dating Younger Women Program a newly launched training course for men over 35 who want to live life on their own terms, and experience everything that younger women have to offer.

The Dating Younger Women Program - a new home training course for "older" men interested in dating women in their twenties and thirties has just been released to the public generating a frenzied buzz of excitement through the men's dating advice community, and prompting an in depth review by PUABooks.net's Clint Johnson.

"The subject of older men dating younger women can be a touchy one," says Johnson. "While many older women celebrate the so-called 'cougar lifestyle' of dating men decades their junior, many folks are still quick to condemn an older guy for doing the same thing. And this societal pressure to date women one's own age isn't the only the thing that keeps guys from dating younger either. A lot of 'older' guys feel like they don't stand a chance with women in their twenties, and if they do summon up the courage to approach a younger girl they end up making mistakes that get them labeled as an 'old creeper'. This is why we were so eager to take a look at Adam Gilad's new Dating Younger Women Program. Many of our website visitors are in their late thirties, forties, fifties and beyond, and we wanted to see if Gilad's program was something that we could recommend to help these guys date the women that they really want."

Johnson's review explains that the course is available digitally online, allowing customers instant access to the entire Dating Younger Women system, as well as a number of bonus trainings from program creator Adam Gilad. Johnson says that he was impressed with the course's comprehensive, classy approach to success with younger women.

"Gilad has made a name for himself by teaching men how to succeed with women and in life, boldly and honestly," says Johnson. "Rather than offering rehashed pick up tactics, he delivers a complete system for attracting and intriguing younger women that is based on the integrity of his own real life experiences, his clients' success, and the latest scientific research on female attraction. One of the things that impressed us the most, that we discussed in our review was that Gilad provided a framework that guys can take and put into action right away, without needing to try to figure anything complicated out. For example, the program comes with templates for online dating that are specifically designed to attract younger women. All a guy has to do is follow the instructions, and that's all there is to it."
