

Relationship Rewind that claims to be a relationship educational tool with a difference that will see people's relationship moving back to that exciting first flush of love that elated them when they first met has caught the attention of <http://GentlemensUniversity.com>'s Stan Stevenson, prompting an investigative review.

"Relationship Rewind is an educational self-help program that that works on a four stage system to show you how to rewind the passion back to the honeymoon stage, and keep it there forever," reports Stevenson. "Both you and your partner will benefit from a closer, more trusting relationship, making both of you immune to those pangs of insecurity and fear that dog most relationships. This program teaches you all about the four stages of 'relationship decay,' right through to rewinding your relationship, how to stop your divorce or breakup, and simple tricks to re-ignite your partner's passion and desire."

Relationship Rewind is a six phase program that teaches people about the following stages of all relationships: Bliss, Switch, Drift, and Death's Door. Bliss when people first meet and fall in love and that inimitable feeling is down to cells in the brain that are called 'mirror neurons.' Switch is where one grows closer to their partner as time goes on, and is due to the 'more exposure effect.' The pain people experience when they begin to drift apart has been proven by researchers to be virtually identical to that of a junkie going through withdrawal symptoms. Death's Door deals with the pain when people lose a loved one to illness, or to another man, which causes profoundly negative effects and terrible emotional pain.

"Our Relationship Rewind review shows it teaches you how to literally foolproof your relationship without becoming weak, pussy whipped, or any of those other emotions you might think are necessary to bring your relationship back on track," says Stevenson. "Easy and interesting to follow, once you understand why these four stages of a relationship happen, then you can begin to put into place the strategies necessary to rebuild the passion and love. The whole aim of the Relationship Rewind program is to causes your partner to fall back in love with you, and this causes your love to come back with a vengeance as well."

"If you want to be happy in love, or are currently in a relationship, or perhaps you've split up with the love of your life and want her back, then Relationship Rewind will give you exactly the information you need to get what you want. This program is helpful even if you aren't in a relationship right now, but want to learn the skills that'll ensure your next one will have the highest chance of success. The best part is there's absolutely no reason why this educational self-help program wouldn't work in a same sex relationship as well. This honestly is an educational program that is more than worth the paper (computer program) it's written on."
