Call for companies
Italian Venture Forum, 20 November, Torino - Italy

Brussels, 30 August 2013 - Europe Unlimited and its partners Camera di Commercio Industria Artigianato e Agricoltura di Torino, Unioncamere Piemonte, I3P and Enterprise Europe Network are pleased to announce the third edition of the Italian Venture Forum taking place in Torino, Italy on the 20th of November 2013, which will showcase Italian best innovative companies in ICT, Clean technologies and Life Sciences.

The Italian Venture Forum's unique programme allows business networking at the highest level, from high level panels and in-depth discussion groups via presentations of fast growing companies to private, pre-arranged One2One meetings for serious business.

Rewards for Selected Companies

Applying companies will be screened by the ITVF Selection Committee (http://e-unlimited.com/events/view.aspx?events_pages_id=1885), and about 40 companies will be selected to present at the forum. Each selected company will have a 15 minutes slot to present their business plans to and answer questions from Venture Capital and Corporate investors, Business Angels and relevant key industry player. In addition, they will benefit from networking opportunities, local and international media exposure and potential opportunities to secure funding. The best 25% of presenters will be awarded and continue to European Venture Summit.

Antonio Sfiligoj, board member of the Italian medtech start-up VivaBiocell, says about the forum: 'The feedback we have received has been incredibly valuable and has helped launch our Company in the global arena'.

Vodafone, GlaxoSmithKline, Sofinnova Partners, the Dow Chemical Company, Total Energy Ventures, Triangle Venture Capital and 360° Capital Partners are some of the corporate and venture capital firms which will be present at the forum.

About the European Venture Contest

The European Venture Contest finds, evaluates and awards the most promising entrepreneurs in the high technology sector by providing access to top-level international partners, advisors and financiers. The Contest reaches this year its 9th edition, and in the past years gathered over 800 companies and 600 venture capitalist and corporate investors from all over Europe. The top 100 companies awarded at the qualifier events will present in December at the European Venture Summit in front of an audience of 150 top European investors.
