Residence Inn Las Vegas Earns 2013 TripAdvisor Award

Las Vegas, NV, hotel earns website's 2013 Certificate of Excellence thanks to numerous positive travelers' reviews

Las Vegas, NV – Guests of Residence Inn Las Vegas resoundingly feel their stays are aces, or even a true royal flush. Their rave online reviews earned the hotel a Certificate of Excellence from TripAdvisor, the world's largest travel website.

TripAdvisor awarded the Las Vegas hotel a 2013 Certificate of Excellence based on its impressive track record of maintaining an overall guest rating of four or higher on a scale of five and its ability to drum up a high volume of guest reviews. TripAdvisor receives more than 50 million unique monthly visitors and is a major platform for traveler reviews, boasting more than 60 million comments and opinions directly from customers and related to the travel industry.

Guests raved about the hotel's convenience to the Las Vegas Convention Center, located across the street, as well as the Las Vegas Strip, which is accessible by monorail. One guest said the hotel "worked out phenomenally for attending a convention." Others praised the hotel's many features and amenities such as the rooms' "modern flat-screen" TVs and "very good breakfast buffet."

Residence Inn Las Vegas' General Manager Dinesh Rao was highly pleased with the hotel guests' generous feedback.

"We strive to make every traveler's experience as luxurious and enjoyable as possible," said Rao. "It's wonderful to know that our guests notice the effort and appreciate the well-appointed rooms, impressive amenities and ideal location our Residence Inn Las Vegas has to offer. We are very grateful to have earned this achievement, and look forward to continuing to provide guests with an excellent experience here in Las Vegas, Nevada."

Guests of the Las Vegas hotel stay in one of 192 suites that make extended stays easy with a fully equipped, newly renovated kitchen boasting a microwave, refrigerator, stove top and oven. Guests enjoy excellent sleep on thick mattresses outfitted with luxury linens, custom comforters and fluffy foam, down and feather pillows. Rooms include a coffeemaker, hairdryer and iron with ironing board for added convenience. Buffet breakfast is complimentary. Pull-out sofa beds offer additional space for families or overnight guests.

The Las Vegas Convention Center hotel is also host to numerous opportunities for further recreation. Guests can take a dip in the heated outdoor pool with whirlpool, enjoy eating alfresco in the barbecue area or strike up a game on the signature Sport Court. As a hotel near the Las Vegas Convention Center, the Residence Inn Las Vegas is just minutes from the Las Vegas Strip as well as quickly accessible to numerous golf courses, horseback riding tours and water sports options including jet skiing, sailing, snorkeling and waterskiing.
