DO YOU SOMETIMES ASK...

"Why is it so hard to get something done around here?"

"Why is my Continuous Improvement Program giving us so little results?"

"What are our people actually doing in this business?"

"How can we get more sales without reducing prices?"

Join us at this workshop for answers to these questions and to develop the beginnings of your own plan to start simplifying your business immediately.

The Workshop Will Be Presented in Three Segments:

1. Create an Effective Operations Strategy for Products and Services
2. Learn Exactly How Your Business is Operating
3. Develop a Proven Strategy of Success Through Total Lead Time Reduction

Workshop Leaders

Bill Ritchie founded Tempus Institute in 2012 to help spread the application of Quick Response Manufacturing through training and a QRM certificate program.

Prior to that he started Customer Chain Consulting LLC in 2007 to work with companies of all sizes to understand the need for an operations strategy and help launch lead time reduction programs with QRM. Bill is a certified trainer in Quick Response Manufacturing (QRM) and is actively involved with the Center for QRM at the University of Wisconsin. Prior to becoming a consultant, Bill had 25 years operations experience as General Manager, Vice President of Operations, and Plant Manager for several industrial businesses including Boston Gear, Cone Drive Textron, and Union Pump Textron, where he was named Six Sigma Champion of the Year for the Industrial Group.

Ben B Graham has been helping people make sense of their processes for over thirty years. He is President of The Ben Graham Corporation and author of the book 'Detail Process Charting: Speaking the Language of Process' published by John Wiley Publishers. His company pioneered the field of business process improvement, and since 1953 has provided process improvement consulting, coaching and education services to organizations across North America. Ben has worked with many organizations to fix process-related problems, build process libraries and develop effective, process-focused, continuous improvement programs. His organization publishes Graham Process Mapping Software, which is designed specifically for preparing detail process maps. More information about the software is available at <http://www.processchart.com>

All attendees will receive...
