From now until Aug. 8, 2014, the Gaslamp hotel is running its AAA Members Save Package in which members receive deluxe accommodations from $169 per night plus complimentary valet parking and breakfast for two at Soleil @k. One of the unique Gaslamp Quarter hotel deals that pays tribute to the automobile club and its followers, this package is valid seven days a week, but members must present their identification cards at check-in.

One thing that sets the hotel in the Gaslamp District apart from other downtown San Diego hotels is its onsite dining options: Soleil @k, the Latitude Lounge and Altitude Lounge.

In addition to serving locally brewed craft beers, the expert bartenders at the Gaslamp Quarter hotel are known for their creativity in concocting different types of cocktails. The Altitude Sky Lounge is another local gem. The rooftop bar on the 22nd floor offers stunning views of the ocean and skyline. Serving appetizers such as ahi sliders, pork pot stickers, Mediterranean calamari, barbeque rotisserie chicken artisan flatbreads and drinks, the Altitude Sky Lounge is on Conde Nast Traveler's 10th annual Hot List.

One of the most convenient hotels in the Gaslamp District, vacationers can easily travel to any of the exciting local activities and attractions. Some of the more popular destinations include the San Diego Zoo, SeaWorld, Legoland, Balboa Park, Seaport Village, Horton Plaza Mall, historic Old Town, Reuben H.
