Introducing: Intuit Tax Education Program powered by The Income Tax School

Charles E. McCabe, CEO of Richmond, VA-based The Income Tax School, Inc., announced a partnership with the Intuit, Inc. to provide bookkeepers the tools they need to learn the basics about tax preparation services. “Participants will be trained on individual and small business Federal and state income tax returns...while simultaneously learning how to use Intuit’s professional-grade cloud-based software – Intuit Tax Online,” said McCabe.

Amber Zable, Intuit senior marketing manager for Intuit Tax Online, said, “This program is convenient and provides everything you need to start learning how to prepare taxes, from training to software to support, for one all-inclusive price.”

The training program is provided online, and participants may start anytime and study at their own pace from anywhere, anytime-24/7 with internet access. Quizzes and exams are graded instantly with instructional feedback. Instructor support is provided by email.

The 90-hour comprehensive tax training covers the fundamentals of individual Form 1040 tax returns, as well as corporation Forms 1120 & 1120S and partnership Form 1065 returns.

The package also includes a tax service Getting Started Guide, plus 25 free tax returns for the 2014 tax season to be prepared with the easy-to-use Intuit Tax Online software. Unlimited tax software support will be provided by Intuit during the tax season.

A complete description of the program and enrollment information is available at the Intuit Tax Education Program website: <http://www.intuittaxed.com>.
