Courtyard Philadelphia Airport Offers Honeymooners A Carefree Start To A Romantic Getaway

Philadelphia Airport hotel offers complimentary parking and shuttle service to and from the airport for guests traveling out of town

Philadelphia, PA – Wedding expenses can grow quickly, which is why the Courtyard Philadelphia Airport wants to help take some of the shock out of a pricey ceremony and honeymoon.

Newlyweds who tie the knot in or around the City of Brotherly Love but then plan to jet off on a romantic getaway from Philadelphia International Airport (PHL) can say “I do” when accepting the Park Here, Fly There Package available through Dec. 31, 2013.

The deal offers deluxe accommodations from $139 to $269 per night in addition to complimentary long-term parking at the hotel near Essington, PA, and shuttle service to and from the airport. That could save travelers $20 per day for parking at the airport in addition to approximately $10 one way for a taxi to their terminal, making the Philadelphia hotel deal a cost-effective way to begin celebrating all nuptials. Lovers also will be assured their cars are in a safe location during their honeymoon so they can focus on each other.

The hotel near Philadelphia Airport offers guests several amenities sure to make their stay in one of the 140 rooms or 12 suites as enjoyable as possible. Couples can enjoy a sound night’s sleep on thick mattresses topped with crisp linens, custom comforters and fluffy pillows. In the morning, newlyweds can enjoy their morning cup of joe with an in-room coffeemaker while they watch their favorite programming on the 32-inch flat-screen television.

When getting ready, couples can enjoy spacious bathrooms with Paul Mitchell products to help them look their best. These relaxing guest rooms are also equipped with plenty of desk-level electrical outlets so couples can make sure their phones and camera batteries are fully charged before taking off on their honeymoon. With social networking being so popular in today’s world, newly married couples often cannot wait to change their online statuses, which is where complimentary, in-room wireless Internet access comes in handy.

As the honeymooners prepare to take off from the hotel, they can take advantage of the GoBoard in the newly upgraded lobby. With the 52-inch touch screen, travelers can access flight, traffic and weather information, making staying up to date easy and convenient.

Once everything is in order, visitors can enjoy a hot, fresh breakfast in the hotel's The Bistro – Eat. Drink. Connect. The Bistro puts the Courtyard Philadelphia Airport a step above other Essington, PA, hotels. The casual eatery serves patrons' favorite breakfast dishes such as classic oatmeal with dried fruits and nuts, cereal, fresh fruit, thick-cut French toast, eggs with crisp bacon, sausage, Bistro potatoes and a variety of breakfast sandwiches. For couples leaving later in the day, The Bistro is also open for dinner. Travelers can order a soup, Asian chicken salad, freshly made pizzas, grilled chicken Caesar wrap, tuna sandwich, chicken ciabatta, turkey sandwich with Swiss cheese and sauerkraut or the Bistro burger with Wisconsin cheddar, bacon, lettuce, tomato and Bistro sauce. The Bistro also serves Starbucks coffee.
