

Construction Audit and Transition Management

A successful project is based on support from executive management, a well-developed team, accountability and governance.

In this exciting and informative course, students will learn how to audit major capital projects involving capital spend, construction and transition management.

When: November 14 and 15th

8:30 AM – 500 PM

Where: Hilton Union Square

333 O'Farrell Street

San Francisco CA 94102

Room Rate: $289/ night

Cost: $1095/student

EARLY BIRD REGISTRATION - $995 for students who sign up by September 1, 2013

Register on-line at:

www.constructionaudittraining.com

Includes: Breakfast

Lunch

Welcome reception on first night

All training material

16 CPEs

Contact Us:

(877) 550-6802

Students will learn industry proven approaches to:

-  Calendar and plan a successful construction audit
-  Understand the risk of capital construction projects, including an introduction to Auspiciium's CARE (Construction Audit Risk Evaluation) Methodology
-  Suggest successful transition on a post project basis
-  Apply new COSO Guidelines for deterring fraud specifically as it relates to construction/renovation programs
-  Understand the roles and tools of internal or external project management and how interaction with audit can be enhanced
-  Using construction contracts to mitigate risk. BONUS Session: 17 things to include in quality construction contracts
-  Manage Change orders
-  Detect typical areas of fraud and abuse
-  Identify resources available to assist in construction audit
-  Effectively use the Internet and electronic testing to perform construction audits.