

MANAGING EDITOR

TIMOTHY PRICKETT-MORGAN

One of the most widely recognized names in IT journalism. A 25-year career spanning major high-tech magazines and publications, including The Register, BusinessWeek, Midrange Computing, IT Jungle, The Four Hundred, ComputerWire and IBM Systems User.

Timothy Prickett-Morgan has covered HPC systems specifically for the last 7 years at The Register and is one of the most distinct voices in broader high-end technology coverage. His relationships with vendors and end user communities is expansive, offering him the reach into the most difficult areas to obtain insider information and expert coverage.

EDITORIAL DIRECTOR
