

About Us

We serve as your hub for finding the speakers that will best fit your event needs. Our service is particularly useful for organizations that are:

- MNCs looking for concrete know-how on how to do business with / in China
- Chinese companies entering the global market looking for international experience

Why China Speakers Agency?

We represent renowned China experts, as well as top-notch international speakers. Instead of searching for the perfect speakers, checking their availability one by one, negotiating terms, and arranging their travel, you simply need to give us a ring. We recommend the best fit and take care of all of the logistics.

No additional cost is incurred for our consultancy and services, for we secure our commission directly from our speakers while providing them with the administrative support they need to let them focus on their speaking.

Our clients include multinational corporations, regional businesses, and civic organizations. You can rely on us to provide just the right speaker for a wide variety of occasions including conventions, management training programs, B2B events, client entertainment, and special company events.

Need a last-minute substitute? We are ready to meet your unanticipated needs by quickly finding you the perfect speaker should your presenter cancel due to an unexpected emergency.
